Who We Are

For over 63 years, Buchanan Barry LLP has been a trusted provider of accounting, assurance, tax, and advisory services. But we're more than just numbers — we're a community of professionals who value mentorship, collaboration, and personal growth. Our open-door culture, flexible work environment, and hands-on learning opportunities create a space where you can thrive personally and professionally. We believe diverse perspectives strengthen our work and our workplace, and we're committed to building an inclusive team where everyone feels they belong.

What We Offer

From your very first day, you'll be supported by dedicated managers who are invested in your growth. You'll gain broad experience working with a wide range of clients — including entrepreneurs, charities, and mid-sized companies — while developing your skills across audits, compilations, complex tax projects, bookkeeping, and financial statement preparation. We provide comprehensive training across all aspects of accounting and taxation to help you become a well-rounded CPA.

Start Dates

We are currently accepting applications for Articling Students beginning in September 2026 or January 2027.

Your Path Forward

Many of our current leaders — from managers to partners — began their careers here as Articling Students. We're proud to promote from within and recognize talent based on performance and potential. Your future at Buchanan Barry is what you make of it — and we're here to support you every step of the way.
